The Islamic Science and Education Institute in Hamburg, Germany

Dr Ali Özgür Özdil

This presentation will provide insight in the development of the Islamic Science and Education Institute (IWB) in Hamburg, Germany. It was founded in 2001 at the request of the Islamic community in Hamburg that was in need for an educational space. Answering a need not only felt in Hamburg, through the years IWB also became active in other German cities and in Austria. In his presentation Ali Özgür Özdil will reflect upon causes and consequences of this fast growth.