Can I come to the University?
Answer these five questions before you come to the University to teach, learn, study or work.

1. Do you have any coronavirus symptoms? (Runny nose, coughing, sneezing, loss of sense of smell/taste, shortness of breath, fever)
   - NO

2. Does a housemate have coronavirus?
   - NO

3. Does a housemate have severe coronavirus symptoms? See question 1
   - NO

4. Have you been in close contact with someone who has coronavirus?
   - NO

5. Have you recently returned from a country with an orange or red travel advisory?
   - NO

You are welcome to come to the University!
Only come in for scheduled teaching, reserved study spaces or work (with your manager’s permission).
Keep to the Campus Protocol, and follow the signs in the buildings.

Tip: take a self-test twice a week, at least on the days when you come to the University. You can order self-tests via zelftestonderwijs.nl. Talk to your manager/study adviser if you (or a housemate) belong to a high-risk group and are concerned about coming to the campus.

Work and study at home
- Staff member? Inform your manager.
- Student? Inform your lecturer and/or study adviser.
- For the quarantine rules, see government.nl. You are welcome back at the University if the government’s Quarantine Check or the GGD says you no longer need to self-quarantine.

What to do if you test positive
If you have coronavirus, you and your household may also need to quarantine at home – as will your close contacts. The GGD will provide further information.
We ask our students and staff to notify their study adviser or manager if they test positive for coronavirus. Due to privacy legislation this is not compulsory, but every reported infection will help us keep our university community safe and healthy.

Latest information
The rules set by government and the National Institute for Public Health and the Environment (RIVM) change frequently. Always check government.nl and RIVM.nl/en and follow the University’s corona updates.

STAY AT HOME
- Book a test with the Municipal Public Health Service (GGD). Stay at home until you have the results.
- Tested positive?

DO THE GOVERNMENT’S QUARANTINE CHECK
- Go to quarantainecheck.rijksoverheid.nl/en and answer the questions
- Follow the steps on testing and self-quarantine
- Do you need to self-quarantine?
- If you don’t need to self-quarantine, answer the other questions on the left-hand side (up to question 5) to see whether you can come to the University.
