

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

PATRISTIC SERMONS IN THE MIDDLE AGES COLLECTIONS, MEDIATORS AND THE PRACTICE OF COMPILING

17-20 October 2023

Rome, Royal Netherlands Institute (KNIR)

Tuesday, 17 October 2023

- 17.00 Registration and welcome
17.45 Opening of the conference
18.00 Keynote lecture by Emanuela Colombi, Artificial Intelligence, few-shot learning layout analysis, and medieval homiliaries
Response by Riccardo Macchioro

Wednesday, 18 October 2023

- 9.30-10.45: Session 1
Rosamond McKitterick, The homiliary of Agimundus, its sources and their implications
David Addison, The Homiliae Toletanae: a collection of collections?
11.15-12.30: Session 2
Matthieu Pignot, How to make sense of compilation disorder? New research on the oldest form of the Octoginta homiliae
Marie Pauliat, The “Vienna Collection”, a Donatist collection? State of the art and first results
14.00-15.15: Session 3
Maximilian Diesenberger, Sermons in mixed manuscripts in early medieval Bavaria
Matthieu van der Meer, The Florilegium Pastorale in codex London, BL Harley 5041: a manual for monastic preachers
15.45-17.00: Session 4
Shari Boodts, Augustine’s most copied sermones ad populum in the Middle Ages
Gleb Schmidt, New approaches to the study of patristic sermon collections

Thursday, 19 October 2023

- 9.30-10.45: Session 5
Moshe Lavee, Compilations of Rabbinic sermons for festivals and Pentateuch readings
Philip Forness, Tracing practices of compiling Syriac sermons from Late Antiquity to the Middle Ages: the case of the exegete, saint, and homilist Jacob of Serugh
11.15-12.30: Session 6
Maria Veronese, Rufinus and the seventeenth “Origenian” homily on Genesis
Annette Von Stockhausen, The homilies of Severian of Gabala in Panegyrika and Chrysostom homiliaries – two case studies
14.00-15.15: Session 7
François Dolbeau, Un sermon de Raban Maur et ses sources
Clemens Weidmann, Cum Latinis studebimus litteris, non respicamus ad Graecas? Translations of Greek sermons in the medieval Latin tradition
15.45-17.00: Session 8
Katy Cubitt, Form and purpose: Ælfric’s transmission of patristic teaching in his Catholic Homilies
Patrick Cowley, Patristic sermons in Twelfth-century Lincoln
17.30-18.45: Session 9
Carolyn Muessig, Women, Fathers and sermons: a consideration of female preachers’ use of Patristics in the Middle Ages
Peter Toth, Patristic sermons on the mediaeval stage: an untracked transmission line
20.00 Conference dinner

Friday, 20 October 2023

- 9.30-10.45: Session 10
Gert Partoens, On the transmission of a neglected text corpus: the homilies of Valerianus of Cimiez (fifth century)
Jérémy Delmulle, Les homélies de Grégoire d’Elvire: tradition manuscrite, corpus, fragments
11.15-12.30: Session 11
Léa Zeringer, Les séries des Sermones ad monachos dans le manuscrit du Vatican, BAV, Reg. lat. 245: étude de compilations parallèles
Mor Hajbi, Timothy and Salvian’s “Against Avarice”: authorship, authority, transmission and reception
12.30 Closing of the conference

Cologne, Fondation Martin Bodmer, Cod. Bodmer 127:
Passionary of Weissenau

CONTACTS: iris.denis@ru.nl; elisa.furlan.5@phd.unipd.it

ORGANISING COMMITTEE:

Dr. Shari Boodts (PI, Radboud University Nijmegen)
Dr. Riccardo Macchioro (Università degli Studi di Milano)
Dr. Gleb Schmidt (Radboud University Nijmegen)
Iris Denis MA (Radboud University Nijmegen)
Elisa Furlan MA (Università degli Studi di Padova)

Radboud Universiteit

