

MA ARABIC AND ISLAMIC STUDIES PROGRAMME
FALL 2022

Programme Outline

Description

The MA Semester Arabic & Islamic Studies at NVIC is a 30 ECTS programme targeted at MA students in Arabic & Islamic Studies of affiliated Dutch and Flemish universities. It is designed to expand and develop the students' oral and written skills in Modern Standard and Egyptian Colloquial Arabic, as well as their knowledge of the literature and social, political, and religious phenomena of the Arab world and Egypt in particular. The programme is designed to be complementary to the programmes of participating universities in Flanders and the Netherlands. The NVIC offers the students more practical experience than s/he is able to gain in Flanders or the Netherlands. Additionally, the research skills of the student are further developed, particularly in reference to the writing of an MA dissertation. The MA Semester Arabic & Islamic Studies is an intensive programme. Students are expected to attend and actively participate in classes, and complete regular assignments.

Admission

Admission to the programme is subject to the following conditions:

1. The student has successfully completed a Bachelor in Arabic & Islamic or equivalent;
2. The student has the permission of a lecturer at the home university to join the programme;
3. The student is registered at one of the affiliated universities during her/his stay in Cairo;

Modules

Course module	Hours /week	ECTS
Advanced Skills in Egyptian Colloquial Arabic		5
Advanced Skills in Modern Standard Arabic		10
Texts in Context I: Arabic Literature		5
Texts in Context II: History, Society and Religion		5
Research Seminar		5
TOTAL		30

NEDERLANDS-VLAAMS INSTITUUT IN CAIRO
المعهد الهولندي الفلمنكي بالقاهرة
NETHERLANDS-FLEMISH INSTITUTE IN CAIRO

Fall semester dates

(4 September – 22 December)

4 September: Orientation Day

5 September: Classes begin

16-20 October: Mid-term exams

23-27 October: Break

30 October: Classes resume

11-17 December: Study Vacation STUVAC (please note that ECA oral exams may take place this week. A schedule will be given to students during the semester)

18-22 December: Final exam week

(Resits will be determined on a case by case basis)

Costs and charges

Participants are charged EUR 160 at the beginning of the programme for course and study materials as well as excursions within Cairo. Additional costs may be incurred for excursions outside of Cairo. Students are expected to own a copy of the above-mentioned handbook and a dictionary.

About NVIC

The Netherlands-Flemish Institute in Cairo (NVIC) is an academic institute located on the island of Zamalek, in the heart of Egypt's bustling capital. It is one of five Dutch Scientific Institutes Abroad (NWIB) and is supported by the Research Fund–Flanders (FWO–Vlaanderen). NVIC provides services to six Dutch and two Flemish universities. It offers undergraduate and graduate programmes in Arabic & Islamic Studies, Middle East Studies, and Egyptology & Archaeology. For more information on NVIC, its staff, its activities, and its teaching programmes, visit <http://www.institutes.leiden.edu/nvic/>

Security and safety in Cairo

In all its activities, NVIC adheres to the security and travel advice of the Dutch and Belgian Embassies in Egypt. We forward any travel or security notice to the students. The student's stay in Cairo is, however, voluntary and their own responsibility. NVIC is not accountable for any harm or damage caused by students to third parties during their stay in Cairo, nor for any physical harm or material loss or damage suffered by the students during their stay. Upon arrival, participants of the programme will be required to sign an indemnification statement. Participants also agree to inform NVIC of any challenges they may face during their stay in Cairo or harm NVIC in any way. This information is treated confidentially. Travel and health insurance are not covered by the programme. Please inquire with your public or private insurance provider and take the necessary measures.

NEDERLANDS-VLAAMS INSTITUUT IN CAIRO
المعهد الهولندي الفلمنكي بالقاهرة
NETHERLANDS-FLEMISH INSTITUTE IN CAIRO

Application/registration

Application forms must reach the institute (info@nvc.leidenuniv.nl) by 1 June.