

Bibliography: Terrorism by Country – Mali

Compiled and selected by David Teiner

Abstract

This bibliography contains books, edited volumes, theses, journal articles, book chapters, grey literature, bibliographies and other useful resources on terrorism affecting Mali. It covers the activities of the numerous terrorist and insurgent groups in the country and the attempts to fight these by national and international actors. Most of the included literature was published since the Malian crisis in 2012. Earlier publications analyzing political, social, economic, or religious developments, that help to understand dynamics of the present conflict, are also included. The literature has been retrieved by manually browsing more than 200 core and periphery sources in the field of terrorism studies.

Keywords: Mali, Al-Qaeda in the Islamic Maghreb, AQIM, Ansar Dine, Islamic State in the Greater Sahara, Jamaat Nusrat al-Islam wal-Muslimin, JNIM, GSIM, Mouvement national pour la liberation de l'Azawad, MLNA

About the Compiler: David Teiner, is a graduate student of Political Science and Sociology at Trier University. He wrote his bachelor's thesis about al-Shabaab's revenue collection. In his latest works, he analyzed the change in ISIS's media strategy between 2014 and 2018 and investigated efficiency deficits in the coordination between international forces trying to stabilize the Malian state and combating terrorist and insurgent groups. David is currently working on a project to illuminate the interdependent relationship between terrorism and organized crime in Mexico and Central America. E-mail: david.teiner@gmx.de.
