2018 Guidelines for Authors submitting Articles or Research Notes to Perspectives on Terrorism

1. MS need to be submitted in twofold: one with full name(s) of author(s) at the beginning of the text and, at the end, with one or several author biographies of ca. 5-8 lines per author;

2. An anonymized version should be without the author(s)' names, the biographies at the end and also without those endnotes that would easily give away the author(s);

3. The text should contain endnotes (NOT Harvard citation in the text itself between brackets or footnotes); the notes should, both in the text and at the end, be between square brackets (like this: [7]) and the notes should NOT be numbered in Roman style (like: [vii]) but in Arabic numerals (like :[7]). The notes should be UNLINKED (do not use 'insert footnote' when using words, instead add the notes manually) and appear at the end of the sentence, example: .[7] instead of [7]. ;

4. There should be an Abstract (in italics) of not more than 15-20 lines at the beginning of the text. It should be different from the opening paragraph(s) of the introduction of the article/research note;

5. There should be 4-6 Keywords between the Abstract and the beginning of the main text;

6. Paragraphs in the text should not be indented but separated by one empty space ;

7. The text should be submitted preferably in Minion Pro 0.12; the main title at the beginning in 0.16 and the endnotes in 0.10 letter size; the total length of the text should not exceed 4,000 words (but this is negotiable) [3,000 words for Research Notes] .

8. The notes should contain complete bibliographic information for any title (book, book chapter, article, report) cited for the first time; if the item cited is available online, the URL should be added after the full citation. Subsequent citations can be in the form: first name of the author, family name of the author, op.cit., and page number;

9. For the rest, the author(s) should look at a recent issue of Perspectives on Terrorism at < https://www. universiteitleiden.nl/perspectives-on-terrorism > to get an idea how their text should look like.

10. The text should be sent to the editor-in-chief at <apschmid@terrorismanalysts.co m >, with copy to the co-editor <jjfforest@gmail.com > , together with an assurance that the MS has not been submitted to another journal and will not be submitted while under review with Perspectives on Terrorism. The MS should be unpublished - and this includes online publications.

11. Texts should be research-based, original and not published elsewhere before (with some exceptions being made for non-English publication elsewhere).

12. The copyright of the text stays with the author(s); so does responsibility for content.
