

Contents

Foreword: Plotting the Anti-Colonial Transnational

Erez Manela

1. The League Against Imperialism: Lives and Afterlives

Michele Louro, Carolien Stolte, Heather Streets-Salter, Sana Tannoury-Karam

2. Forging a Proto-Third World? Latin America and the League Against Imperialism

Michael Goebel

3. An Independent Path: Algerian Nationalists and the League Against Imperialism

Dónal Hassett

4. “Long Live the Revolutionary Alliance Against Imperialism”: Interwar Anti-Imperialism and the Arab Levant

Sana Tannoury-Karam

5. China, Anti-imperialist Leagues, and the Comintern: Visions, Networks and Cadres

Anna Belogurova

6. “We will fight with our lives for the equal rights of all peoples”: Willi Münzenberg, the League Against Imperialism, and the Comintern

Fredrik Petersson

7. British Passport Restrictions, the League Against Imperialism, and the Problem of Liberal Democracy

Daniel Brückenhaus

8. No More Slaves! Lamine Senghor, Black Internationalism and the League Against Imperialism

David Murphy

9. Unfreedom and Its Opposite: Towards an Intellectual History of the League Against Imperialism

Disha Karnad Jani

10. An Anti-Imperialist “Echo” in India

Michele Louro

11. Two Leagues, One Front? The India League and the League Against Imperialism in the British Left, 1927–1937

Mark Reeves

12. Herald of a Failed Revolt: Mohammad Hatta in Brussels, 1927

Klaas Stutje

13. The Leninist Moment in South Africa

Christopher J. Lee

14. Towards Afro-Asia? Continuities and Change in Indian Anti-Imperialist Regionalism, 1927–1957

Carolien Stolte

15. Institutionalizing Postcolonial Internationalism: The Apparatus of the Third World Project

Jeffrey Byrne

Afterword: the Zigzag of the Global in the Histories of the League Against Imperialism

Antoinette Burton