

Historical Blendings: An Entangled History of Social Democracy and Liberalism in Europe

Conference Organizers: Anne Heyer, Jacopo Perazzoli, and Brian Shaev

The conference organizers would like to thank Leids Universiteits Fonds (LUF), the Institute for History at Leiden University, and Brill Press for their generous funding that has made this international conference possible.

Program and time schedule

Friday 2 September 2022 (Conference Room 2.60, Huizinga Building)
13:00-13:15	Welcome	Anne Heyer,
13:15-13:30	Introduction	Jacopo Perazzoli and Brian Shaev
Politics 13:30-15:00	1) Separated for Good? German Social Democrats and their Connection to Liberalism, 1860-1880 2) Italian Socialism's Liberal Turn: From United Front to Coalitional Partner 3) In Defence of Modernity: On the Cooperation between the PvdA and VVD in the Development of the Dutch Minorities Policy (1977-1983) Discussant: Paul van Trigt	Anne Heyer Gianluca Scroccu Daan Musters
15:00-15:30	Coffee
Economics 15:30-17:00	1) The Early Austrian Economists and the Swedish Left (1889-1931) 2) 'The Plan': Hendrik de Man, the Collapse of Interwar Liberalism and Reflationary, early Keynesian economics 3) Reconsidering Bad Godesberg: Rhetoric versus Substance in the Postwar Modernization of German Social Democracy Discussant: Dennie Oude Nijhuis	Mats Andréén Tommaso Milani Brian Shaev
17:00-17:15	Break
17:15-18:30	Keynote	Annelien de Dijn
19:00	Conference Dinner
Saturday 3 September 2022 (Room 119, Lipsius Building)
Culture 10:15-12:00	1) Free Speech for Fascists and Communists? Entangled Perspectives on Social Democratic and Liberal Conceptions of Democratic Culture, 1920s-1930s 2) Socialism and Freedom and Faith: How the Socialist International and 1950s revisionism wrote liberalism and Christianity into their history 3) Social Democracy's 1968 in Social and Cultural Perspectives	Kasper Braskén Ettore Costa Mattia Gambilonghi
12:00-13:00	Lunch

13:00-14:30 Internationalism	1) International Socialism and International Arbitration, 1889-1914 2) Wilsonianism and its Influences on European Socialism between World War One and First Post-War Period: The Case of French Socialism 3) Socialist Internationalism and the League of Nations Discussant: Robin de Bruin	Elisa Marcobelli Jacopo Perazzoli Brian Shaev and Daniel Laqua
14:30-14:45	Coffee
14:45-16:00 The ‘Turn’: Social Democracy in the 1970s-1990s	1) The Relationship of the Spanish Socialist Party (PSOE) with Liberalism in the 20th Century: from Republican Socialism to Liberal Social-Democracy (1974-1990) 2) The Neoliberalisation of Swedish and Finnish Social Democracy in the 1970s-1990s 3) The UK Labour Party’s Schism and Labour Liberalism, 1970s-1990s Discussant: Matt Broad	Sigfrido Ramírez Pérez Ilkka Kärriylä Jeremy Nuttall
16:15-16:30	Break
16:30-17:00	Concluding Remarks	Jonathan Polk
17:00-17:15	Conference Conclusion	Jacopo Perazzoli and Brian Shaev