

L- PEG ROUNDTABLE

The Decade of Revolt? Class Conflict and the State of Permanent Crisis in the Post-2011 Middle East

Image from "Revolution Graffiti: Street Art of the New Egypt," by Swedish photographer Mia Gröndahl (AUC Press, 2013)

Conveners:

dr. Stella Morgana (University of Amsterdam)
dr. Nicola Degli-Esposti (LSE & University of Padova)

Date and time:

Friday, 18 February 2022 - H: 13:00

Location:

Online

Please register here https://universiteitleiden.zoom.us/meeting/register/u5wod-iqrz8oE9SYik8ko7rMDqjEW_oh0riw

PANEL 1 - 13:00 - 14:30

CAPITAL AND ENVIRONMENT: THE POLITICAL ECONOMY OF THE UPRISINGS

13:00 - 13:10

dr. Nicola Degli Esposti and dr. Stella Morgana

Opening remarks

13:10 - 13:30

prof. Adam Hanieh (University of Exeter)

Pandemic Politics and Capitalist Crisis in the Middle East

13:30 - 13:50

dr. Christian Henderson (Leiden University)

The political ecology of revolution. Locating the environment in the Arab uprisings

13:50 - 14:30

Q&A session

Discussant: dr. Crystal Ennis (Leiden University)

COFFEE BREAK

PANEL 2 – 15:00–16:30

THE POLITICS OF PARTICIPATION TEN YEARS AFTER THE ARAB SPRINGS

15:00– 15:10

dr. Stella Morgana and dr. Nicola Degli Esposti

Introduction

15:10–15:30

prof. Melani Cammett (Harvard University)

The Dynamics of Political Preferences

in the Ongoing Arab Uprisings

15:30–15:50

dr. Nadine Sika (The American University of Cairo)

A Decade after the Arab Uprisings: Mobilization, Contention and Policy Concessions in Egypt and Jordan

15:50–16:30

Q&A session

Discussant: dr. Crystal Ennis (Leiden University)