

Seminar
for students and everyone who is interested
Coptic ostraca from the Theban region (Egypt)

Thursday, 16 May 2019

Lipsius Building, room 147

- 13:30 – 14:00 Registration
- 14:00 – 15:00 Introduction to papyrology in Leiden (in Dutch)
- 15:00 – 15:30 Break
- 15:30 – 16:00 Introduction of the guest speakers (in English)
- Introduction to Coptic ostraca from the Theban region
- 16:00 – 17:00 Opening lecture by:
Julia Lougovaya (Heidelberg) Writing on Ostraca. A Material Approach

O.Col. inv. 693

© Rare Book & Manuscript Library,
Columbia University

Friday, 17 May 2019

Lipsius Building, room 227

- 10:00 – 17:00 Short papers by:
- Renate Dekker (Leiden) Coptic ostraca as sources for reconstructing social networks
- Petra Hogenboom (Leiden) Coptic ostraca in the Egyptian collection of the National Museum of Antiquities
- 11:15 – 11:30 Break
- Jacques van der Vliet (Nijmegen) The correspondence of Bishop Pesynthios. Papyrus only?
- Jenny Cromwell (Manchester) Coptic ostraca from the town of Jeme
- Eline Scheerlinck (Leiden) Letters of protection from Western Thebes
- 13:00 – 14:00 Lunch
- Matthias Müller (Basel) Coptic texts from the Dayr al-Rūmī and from the South Asasif
- Andrea Hasznos (Göttingen) The Monastery of Cyriacus (TT 65)
- Frederic Krueger (Berlin) The Coptic Correspondence of Andrew of Hermonthis (6th Century) from the Monastery of Apa Ezekiel
- 15:30 – 15:45 Break
- Renate Dekker (Leiden) Ostraca from the Monastery of St Phoibammon (Dayr al-Bahri)
- 17:00 – 18:00 Reception

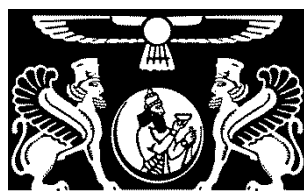

If you'd like to attend, please send an email to Renate Dekker, r.e.l.dekker@hum.leidenuniv.nl

Updates will be posted at: <https://www.facebook.com/events/274404489900197/>.

Made possible thanks to the generous support from

Brigitte und Martin
Krause-Stiftung

NINO

Leids
Universiteits
Fonds