

GTGC Conference

Campus The Hague, 7-9 June 2023

Presents:

Roundtable II: Do Sanctions Work?

8 June, 11:00-12:30 + lunch

Schouwburgstraat 2, 2511 VA, Den Haag; Room A0.06

Panellists

ALANNA O'MALLEY - Moderator

- Associate Professor of International History at Leiden University
- Principal Investigator, "Challenging the Liberal World Order from Within: The Invisible History of the United Nations and the Global South", ERC Project
- Editor-in-Chief, Global Governance
- Historian of the UN, Global Order, Self-determination, Cold War, Global South

THOMAS J. BIERSTEKER

- Gasteyer Professor Honoraire at the Graduate Institute Geneva
- Global Fellow at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars
- Principal developer of UNSanctionsApp
- Author of 12 books, including The Impacts and Effectiveness of UN Action (2016)
- Previously taught at Yale University and Brown University

LARISSA VAN DEN HERIK

- Professor of Public International Law at Leiden University
- Research on international peace and security law, with focus on UN sanctions
- General Editor, Cambridge Studies in International and Comparative Law
- Chair, Advisory Committee on Public International Law to the Dutch government
- Member, independent commission evaluating Law on Intelligence and Security

NATALIA KUBESCH

- Legal advisor at REDRESS, with focus on use of Magnitsky sanctions to provide accountability for human rights violations
- Formerly lawyer at two international law firms, advising on compliance with the UK's sanction regimes
- Led on litigation and policy reform on behalf of victims of arbitrary detention, sexual violence and gender discrimination

Universiteit
Leiden

Global Transformations and Governance Challenges

Find out more

