

Major: Governance, Economics & Development, 2020-2021
400-level	Capstone thesis
300-level	Institutions in Time (compulsory)	Public Policy Analysis	Human Security Development Project Management (10EC)	Multi-level Governance	Advanced Political Economy	Economics of the European Union Economic Growth and Development	Environment and Development Environmental Economics Applied Natural Resource Management	Law, Governance, and Development
Methodology courses 200-level / 300-level	Quantitative Research Methods (compulsory) Foundations of Research Design (compulsory) Qualitative Research Methods Geographic Information Systems Advanced Geographic Information Systems Advanced Quantitative Research Methods Game Theory Modelling Bio-economic Dynamics Calculus
200-level	Decision-making Processes (compulsory)	Politics of the Policy Process	Politics and Development	Comparative Party Systems	Political Economy Political Economy of Natural Resources	Microeconomics Macroeconomics International Economics	Life Cycle Assessment Environmental Governance	Political and Economic Foundations of Law
Electives (not part of any tracks)	Foundational Texts in Governance, Economics & Development (100-level) Ethics in Governance, Economics & Development (200-level)
100-level	Institutions of Governance & Development (compulsory)			Introduction to Comparative Politics (compulsory)		Principles of Economics (compulsory)	Sharing Scarcity	Comparative Justice Systems
Tracks	Institutional Analysis	Policy Science	International Development	Comparative Politics	Political Economy	Economics	With EES	With IJ
	Major tracks						Co-convened tracks (shared with other Majors)	