

Major: International Justice, 2025-2026
400-level	Capstone thesis
300-level	Law of the Sea International Criminal Law Digital Technology and International Law Global Security and Collective Action	Making Human Rights Work Transitional Justice	Comparative Legal & Economic Integration Foreign Relations Law	Managing Natural Resources in Law and Practice Law, Governance & Development	Global Security and Collective Action Diplomacy of International Conflict	Vulnerability, Gender and the Politics of Care Feminist Philosophy
200-level	International Dispute Settlement International Environmental Law International Humanitarian Law	International & Regional Human Rights Law, Culture and Society Human Rights, Law & Philosophy	Structure and Functioning of the EU Constitutions and Constitutionalism	Political & Economic Foundations of Law	International and Regional Organisations in World Politics Ways of Seeing International Law	Intersectionality, Media and Conflict Gender and Development Anthropology of Gender and Sexuality Women, Human Rights, and World Religions
200-level cross-track course	Ways of Seeing International Law
200-level Methodology courses	Legal Methods Lab Advocacy and Litigation Qualitative Research Methods Research Design in International Justice (compulsory)
100-level	Principles of Public International Law (compulsory)	Introduction to Socio-legal Studies (compulsory)	Sovereignty & Statehood (compulsory)	Comparative Justice Systems	Introduction to Global Order and Justice	Introduction to Gender Studies
Tracks	International Law	Human Rights and Society	Statehood and Integration	GED/IJ	WP/IJ	Gender Studies
	Major tracks			Co-convened tracks (shared with other Majors)		