

Major: World Politics, 2025-2026
400-level	Capstone thesis
300-level	Regional Trends: Russia in World Politics The International Politics of Climate Change Regional Trends: The Rise of China Asia in Global History: From Colonialism to the Post-Cold War Era	Researching Radicalisation & Counter-Extremism Regional Trends: The EU in World Politics Religion in World Politics	Designing Policy Interventions: Peacebuilding, Development and Public Health The Lusophone South Atlantic Regional Trends: African History and Politics Politics of Cultural Memory	Investigative Journalism Multimedia Journalism Video Journalism Cyber Security	Global Security and Collective Action Diplomacy of International Conflict	Feminist Philosophy Vulnerability, Gender and the Ethics of Care Equity and Justice in Food System Transformations
Methodology courses 200 and 300-level	Political Research Design (compulsory) Quantitative Research Methods Advanced Quantitative Research Methods (300-level) Qualitative Research Methods Cultural & Visual Analysis Historical Research Methods Thinking About Politics
200-level	Nations and Nationalism An American Century? US Foreign Relations from 1898 to the Present	Regionality in World Politics: Political Islam in the Middle East International and Regional Organisations in World Politics	Ethics of Contemporary Warfare Conflict & Democracy	Intersectionality, Media and Conflict Political Cinema Essentials of Journalism Digital Politics	International and Regional Organisations in World Politics Ways of Seeing International Law	Gender & Development Women, Human Rights and World Religions Anthropology of Gender and Sexuality Social and Gender Analysis for Sustainability
General Knowledge courses 200-level	Struggles for Decolonisation: Past and Present Leadership in Politics and Diplomacy: Practitioners' Perspectives Power in World Politics
Elective courses	Birth of the Modern World Topics in Philosophy: Death and the Dead in the Digital World (These courses will no longer be part of World Politics from 2026-2027 onwards)
100-level	Introduction to International Relations and Diplomacy	Introduction to Globalization and Transnational Politics	Introduction to Peace and Conflict Studies	Media and Communication Theory	Introduction to Global Order and Justice	Introduction to Gender Studies
Tracks	Core Track I: IR and Diplomacy	Core Track II: Global and Transnational Politics	Core Track III: Peace and Conflict Studies	Core Track IV: Digital Politics and Media	Co-Convened: Global Order and Justice	Co-Convened: Gender Studies
	Major tracks					