

Global Public Health 2017-2018
400 level	Capstone
300 level	Maternal and Child Health	Health and Environment	Health and Development: HIV in Africa	Applied Developmental Psychopathology* Cognitive Psychology* Mental Health & Illness* Primary and Secondary Prevention Strategies
Methods (Two are required)	Advanced Quantitative Research Methods (300) Advanced Geographical Information Systems (300) Qualitative Methods in Global Public Health (200) Quantitative Research Methods (200) Geographical Information Systems (200) Psychoanalytic and psychosocial research methods (200)
200 level	Infectious Diseases Non-communicable Diseases Nutrition and Public Health	Ecotoxicology	Medical Anthropology	Health Psychology Psychology of Stress and Health*
100 level	Biology Chemistry		Culture, Diversity and Health	Introduction to Psychology* Social Determinants of Health
	Health, Society, and History
	Introduction to Epidemiology and Global Public Health Health Systems & Management
Tracks	Biomedical Sciences	Health and Environment (GPH & EES)	Health and Development	Health, Behavior and Society
Tracks are: Biomedical sciences, Health and development, Health and Environment and Health, behavior and society. Compulsory 100 level courses are: Introduction to Epidemiology and Global Health and Health Systems and Management. Take at least: two tracks with one 100 level, one 200 level and one 300 level course and two methods courses. *Co-convened with Psychology minor				