

World Politics, 2017-2018

400-level	Capstone Thesis
300-level	Regional Trends: The Rise of China  Regional Trends: Contemporary Russian Politics and Security  Multilateral Institutions  Diplomacy of International Conflict	Regional Trends: Political Islam in the Middle East  Regional Trends: The EU and Its Neighbourhood  Researching Terrorism and Counterterrorism  International Economic Relations	Regional Trends: Political Transitions in Africa  Systems Approaches to Conflict Analysis  Genocide Studies  Ethics of Contemporary War	History of the Middle East  History & Politics of Global Migration  Studies in Conflict: From Algeria to Iraq  Totalitarianism  Public Diplomacy	Feminist Philosophy  Violence, Gender and the Ethics of Care
200/300-level Method Courses	200-level Political Research Methods (compulsory) 200-level Theories and Concepts in International Politics 200-level Quantitative Research Methods 200-level Qualitative Research Methods 200-level Historical Methods
200-level	Thinking about Politics: Power and Sovereignty  Power in World Politics  Foreign Policy and Diplomacy  Nations and Nationalism	Religion in World Politics  European Integration  Critical Security Studies	War and Strategic Studies  Conflict and Democracy	Studies in War: From the Crimea to the Second World War  20th Century Diplomatic History  Social Movements in International Perspective	Gender, Media and Conflict  Gender & Development  Anthropology of gender and sexuality
100-level Core	Introduction to IR and Diplomacy	Introduction to Globalisation and Transnational Politics	Introduction to Peace and Conflict Studies	Birth of the Modern World	Introduction to Gender Studies
Track	Core Track I: IR and Diplomacy	Core Track II: Globalisation and Transnational Politics	Core Track III: Peace and Conflict Studies	Core Track IV: International History	Co-Convened: Gender Studies

World Politics, 2017-2018

Major requirements (80 EC):

- 15 EC the choice of three out of the four 100-level major core track courses (Introduction to IR and Diplomacy, Introduction to Globalisation Studies, Introduction to Peace and Conflict Studies or Birth of the Modern World/Introduction to Global/International History);
- 10 EC in Methods course to include Political Research Methods;
- 45 EC within the WP major, including at least four 300-level courses;
- 10 EC Capstone.