

400-level	Capstone Thesis
300-level Optional Course	Regional Trends: The Rise of China Regional Trends: Contemporary Russian Politics and Security Multilateral Institutions Diplomacy of International Conflict	Regional Trends: Political Islam in the Middle East Regional Trends: The EU and Its Neighbourhood Researching Terrorism and Counterterrorism Global Political Economy	Regional Trends: Political Transitions in Africa Systems Approaches to Conflict Analysis Genocide Studies Ethics of Contemporary War	History of the Middle East History & Politics of Global Migration Studies in Conflict: From Algeria to Iraq Totalitarianism Public Diplomacy: Theory and Practice	Feminist Philosophy Violence, Gender and the Ethics of Care
200/300-level Method Courses	Political Research Methods (compulsory) Theories and Concepts in International Politics Quantitative Research Methods Advanced Quantitative Methods Qualitative Research Methods Historical Methods
200-level Optional Course	Foundational Texts in World Politics Power in World Politics International and Regional Organisations in World Politics
200-level Optional Course	Thinking about Politics: Power and Sovereignty Foreign Policy and Diplomacy Nations and Nationalism	Religion in World Politics European Integration	International Security Studies (formerly: Critical Security Studies/War and Strategic Studies) Conflict and Democracy	Studies in War: From the Crimea to the Second World War 20 th Century Diplomatic History Social Movements in International Perspective	Gender, Media and Conflict Gender & Development Anthropology of Gender and Sexuality
100-level Core	Introduction to IR and Diplomacy	Introduction Globalisation and Transnational Politics	Introduction to Peace and Conflict Studies	Birth of the Modern World	Introduction to Gender Studies
Track	Core Track I: IR and Diplomacy	Core Track II: Global and Transnational Politics	Core Track III: Peace and Conflict Studies	Core Track IV: International History	Co-Convened: Gender Studies

Major requirements (80 EC):

- 15 EC the choice of three out of the four 100-level major core track courses (Introduction to IR and Diplomacy, Introduction Globalisation and Transnational Politics, Introduction to Peace and Conflict Studies or Birth of the Modern World);
- 10 EC in Methods course to include Political Research Methods;
- 50 EC within the WP major, including at least four 300-level courses;
- 10 EC Capstone.

NOTE: these are the requirements for the students who first enrolled at LUC in September 2018; students of previous cohorts should adhere to the Major requirements as stated in the e-Prospectus of 2017-2018.