

Contents

Introduction: The Secular Outlook	1
1 Atheism, Agnosticism, and Theism	14
The Alpha Privative	16
Atheism and Liberal Concepts of God	17
Atheism as an Unpopular Position	20
A Definition of Atheism	25
Motives for Atheism	42
Atheist Values	45
Spiritual Excellences and the Liberal Decalogue	47
Agnosticism	50
The History of Agnosticism	55
Huxley and Russell	57
Pascal's Wager	59
Pascal's Insight	62
Atheism or Non-Theism?	63
2 Freethought I: Criticism of Religion	69
"Écrasez l'Infâme"	72
Religion and Evil	76
Religious Violence	77
Father and Daughter	80
How to Discover a Relationship between Religion and Violence	84
Ramadan v. Hirsi Ali	86
Religion "per se"	89
Textual Relativism	91
Can Translation Mitigate All Immoral Passages in Scripture?	94
Can Interpretation Mitigate All Immoral Passages in Scripture?	96

vi Contents

Why Are “Moderates” so Reluctant to Criticize Religion?	98
The Bible on Apostasy	102
Biblical Terrorism: The Story of Phinehas	105
Biblical Violence and Modern Legal Practice	108
The Book of History	112
Some Objections	115
3 Freethought II: Freedom of Expression	122
Mill on Liberty	123
Khomeini v. Rushdie	125
Fukuyama Giving Up on the Arab World	130
The Limits of Free Speech	134
The Deontological and Utilitarian Justifications for Free Speech	138
Clifford on the Duty to Critique	141
Freedom of Speech and Philosophers on the Index	143
Intolerance not Restricted to Islam	147
Giniewski v. France	150
Freethought under Fire	152
People Are Not Being Insulted for Having a Religion	155
Racism without Race	161
Social Criticism not Identical with the Urge to Provoke	163
Flemming Rose on Why He Published the Danish Cartoons	164
The Theory of Evolution: Too Controversial to Defend?	168
Is There Another Way to Discover the Truth than by Free Discussion?	170
4 Moral and Political Secularism	172
Pope Benedict XVI on the Apostle’s Creed	176
“Who Are You to Tell Believers What to Believe?”	180
What Judaism, Christendom and Islam Have in Common: Theism	184
Divine Command Theories	188
Abraham and Isaac	194
The Story of Abraham in the Qur’an	196
The Story of Jephtha	201
Adherents of Divine Command Theory	204
Command Ethics or Divine Command Ethics?	206
An Assessment of Divine Command Ethics	210
Kierkegaard and Mill	218
Kohlberg and Moral Education	221
Religious and Secular Ethics	225
Worship	229

Kant's Struggle with Moral Autonomy and Free Speech	234
Kant's Legacy in Nineteenth-Century German Theology	241
Schleiermacher as the Father of Modern Hermeneutics	244
Armstrong's Plea for Liberal Interpretation	248
A New Way to Look at the "Sacredness" of Scripture?	252
Classic Books and Sacred Books	254
Violating the Integrity of the Text	262
Is Hermeneutics the Only Way to Modernize Traditions?	266
Is Islam "Secularization-Resistant"?	272
Two Kinds of Reformers: Liberal Islam and Secular Islam	274
Selected Reading	281
Index	305

UNCORRECTED PROOF

UNCORRECTED PROOF

M