

Migration research at Leiden University and GMD

Location: Campus The Hague, Locatie Wijnhaven (Turfmarkt 99), Leiden University Zaal 3.60

The objective of the meeting is to introduce migration-related research conducted at Leiden University and the LDE Centre Governance of Migration and Diversity (GMD) to officials of the Ministry of Justice and Security and related agencies.

To facilitate an open discussion, Chatham House Rule applies.

9.30-10.00 Coffee and registration

10.00-10.15 Opening by Peter Rodrigues

10.15-11.15 Panel 1: Street-level dynamics and challenges in migration border control

Roxane de Massol de Rebetz, Beyond the dichotomy between migrant smuggling and human trafficking? Examining the Belgian third-way approach from a socio-legal perspective
Hannah Bliersbach, The Getting and Granting of Citizenship: Examining Naturalization in Germany and Canada
Maartje van der Woude, Decision-making and emotional labour in the borderlands

11.15-12.15 Panel 2: Migration Law and Policy in the EU

Talha Gunay, Judicial and administrative implications of the increased cooperation on return between the EU authorities (Frontex) and Member States under EU law
Melanie Fink, Access to Justice in the EU
Stamatis Melissourgos en Mark Klaassen, Stuck in Greece? Unaccompanied Minors' Stratified Access to Family Reunification on the Way to other EU Member States

12.15-13.00 Lunch

13.00-14.00 Panel 3: Refugee governance

Mirjam Twigt, Everyday realities of refugee governance in the 'region'
Zeynep Balcioglu Tasma, Embedded Bureaucrats and Refugee Integration: The Case of Local Municipalities in Istanbul

Simona Vezzoli, PACES – Making migration and migration policy decisions amidst societal transformations

14.00-15.00 Panel 4: The economics and politics of migration

Briitta van Staalduinen, Employment without mobility? Why social investment fails immigrants

Anna-Lena Nadler, Examining consequences of alien enfranchisement: political representation and behavior of immigrants and natives

Olaf van Vliet, The net fiscal position of migrants in Europe

15.00 Closing