Welcome

Dear Participants,

The Grotius Centre for International Legal Studies wishes you a warm welcome to the City of Peace and Justice for the 14th session of the International Criminal Law Summer School. This Summer School combines the academic expertise of Leiden University, with its unique location at the footsteps of the international courts and tribunals in The Hague.

It welcomes students and professionals from all over the world to discuss the challenges and prospects of International Criminal Law. The workshops will cover many topics, from Genocide, Crimes against Humanity, War Crimes, the Crime of Aggression and Gender Crimes to Modes of Liability, Victims Participation, the Rights of the Accused and Complementarity. All courses are listed in the schedule on the following pages.

In the coming two weeks you will also visit the International Criminal Court, the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and the Special Tribunal for Lebanon. And last but not least, you will improve your advocacy skills and make new friends during the Cross-Examination Exercise and the challenging Summer School Moot Court. We sincerely hope you will enjoy the course, and we wish you two wonderful weeks in The Hague!

The Grotius Centre for International Legal Studies Summer School Team
