

Fang-I Chu

---

Female | Taiwanese | f.chu@fsw.leidenuniv.nl

EDUCATION

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE | NATIONAL TAIWAN UNIVERSITY

- Horticulture

MASTER OF ARTS | NATIONAL TAIWAN UNIVERSITY

- Anthropology

RESEARCH INTEREST

ANTHROPOLOGY OF RELIGION

INTANGIBLE HERITAGE

FOLKLORISTICS

- Han Chinese Religion
- Taiwan Austronesian Peoples

WORK EXPERIENCE

GUIDE | NTU, MUSEUM OF ANTHROPOLOGY | MAR. 2014—DEC. 2016

- Introduce exhibits and history of Taiwan indigenous peoples to visitors.
- Executive planner assistant of artifact repatriation, including “wedding” (2015), and “homecoming” (2016) rituals between NTU and Paiwan communities
- Basic cleaning and maintains in collection storeroom

PUBLICATION & PRESENTATIONS

WORKSHOP ORGANIZER (2015)

- “Gender Awareness and Practice under Field Research”

2016 FANG-I CHU, IF GODS EXIST, THEN SO DO GHOSTS: Religious Phenomena of a Coastal Settlement in Hengchun Peninsula, Master thesis, National Taiwan University (Taipei Taiwan).

2016 FANG-I CHU, SPELL, MONSTERS, AND A DUTCH GODDESS: Folklore in Kenting Settlement. Presented in Annual Conference of the Taiwan Society for Anthropology and Ethnology, “Anthropology, Ethnicity, and Ethnic Studies”, National Taiwan University (Taipei Taiwan) Sep. 10-11.

AWARDS & HONORS

Program Grants of the Institute of Ethnology, Academia Sinica, in Cooperation with Other Universities (2014)

Government Fellowship for Overseas Study. Offer by Ministry of Education, Taiwan (2016)